First name:

NetID:

Did you implement Linear Classifiers? Yes

Did you implement Neural Networks (extra credit)? Yes No

Did you write a report that is more than a README, that has actual text in paragraphs (not bullet points), as well as the graphs described in the project description? Yes

One last question:

- Java programmers: Do you have a nice, relatively short, clear `main` method that creates instances of your other classes to demonstrate the two (or three) algorithms?

Check one: Yes No I don't know

- Python programmers: Did you use good object-oriented design, with classes, avoiding global functions and variables, and doing very little outside of any method or function?

Check one: Yes No I don't know

- C Programmers: Did you use “`-std=c99 -Wall -Werror`” and does your code have a clean report from `valgrind`?

Check one: Yes No I don't know
